personal debt advice

overview

When employees are worried about their financial situation, it can cause them to be less focussed and stressed, making it difficult to concentrate on work and other responsibilities. The Personal Debt Advice service provides expert online debt advice to get employees back on track and make their finances more manageable.

The Personal Debt Advice service supports the financial wellbeing of your employees by offering honest and tailored advice to help them to deal with their debts, whatever their situation. The service includes:

- ✓ Instant online debt advice - a complete end-to-end online advice tool providing employees with an immediate recommendation based on their individual circumstances
- ✓ Seamless straight forward process - providing employees with completely transparent recommendations including the advantages, disadvantages and any associated costs of solutions that are available to them

- ✓ Advice at any time - employees can access advice at any time using the online tool, and during office hours, they can speak to a trained debt advisor over the phone, via email or through the live chat

- ✓ No searches - employees won't have any marks on their credit file as no searches are carried out

other support

Employees can also seek debt advice from the Money Advice Service, which is a government organisation set up to help people to manage their money.
